Christian Fraternity Recognized as a Finalist in National Step-Off Competition

Baltimore, Md. – The National Step Team of Alpha Nu Omega, Inc. has received the greatest honor in being selected as a finalist in the Comfort Inn Step Off Competition, sponsored by Comfort Inn Hotel and The Steve Harvey Morning Show.

Alpha Nu Omega was selected among numerous submissions received from across the country. Alpha Nu Omega will be competing against teams representing Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc., Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc., and Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. The competition will air live nationally in Charlotte, NC on Friday, February 27, 2009.

“Ultimately, all glory to God, for choosing us worthy to speak the name of Jesus Christ,” said Eric Borden, member of Alpha Nu Omega. “[and to] showcase the ministry of Alpha Nu Omega, and represent Christian Greek organizations on a nationally-syndicated radio show.”

Alpha Nu Omega, Inc. Christian Fraternity and Sorority is a dual organization founded in 1988 on the campus of Morgan State University serving both male (fraternity) and female (sorority) members on campuses across the country. With 24 chapters predominately on the East Coast, the leadership is headed by Visionary Founder Shirley K. Russell and President Clarence Patterson. Alpha Nu Omega is a pioneer in the movement of Christian fraternities and sororities. For more information on Alpha Nu Omega, visit them at www.alphanuomega.org.

Alpha Nu Omega is a charter member of the United Council for Christian Fraternities and Sororities, Inc., comprised of 5 member organization serving over 2,500 members and over 60 chapters across the country through sharing of resources, leadership training and cooperative ministry.
